

Assembly 8-M

Republic Day

Teacher: Mr. Rybin

Date: 14/01/2024

Overview & Purpose

To explain about the Republic Day of India and Conduct an assembly on it.

Sections

1. Anchor and Stuff
2. Speech and Important Facts on Republic Day of India
3. Skit on Republic Day and Ending.

Anchor and Stuff

1. First Anchor - _____ and Second Anchor - _____
2. UAE National Anthem and Hoist the Flag.
3. Recitation - _____ & Translation - _____

4. Vision - _____ & Mission - _____
5. Pledge - _____
6. Thought of the Day - _____ ("A nation's culture resides in the hearts and in the soul of its people. - Mahatma Gandhi)
7. Daily News - _____ (Global , State)(Get the news of that day.)

Speech and Important Facts about Republic Day

1. Speech - _____ (Speech)
2. Important Facts about Republic Day - _____

Skit

For some fun learning

1. Skit on Republic Day
2. Skit
3. Members -
 - Raj - A patriotic citizen of India (_____)
 - Ram - Raj's curious friend (_____)
 - Professor Verma - A wise and enthusiastic teacher (_____)
 - Constitution Man - A superhero embodying the Indian Constitution (_____)

Activity

Describe activity that will reinforce the Assembly

Quiz on Republic Day

Speech

I would like to say good morning to My Respected Supervisor, Teachers and my dear colleagues. As we all know that we get together here to celebrate 75th Republic Day of our nation. This is a very auspicious occasion for all of us. Since 1950, we have been celebrating Republic Day every year with lots of joy and happiness. Our Indian anthem which is a symbol of unity and peace in India. Our National Anthem is written by the great poet Rabindranath Tagore.

Our national flag has three colors and a wheel in the center with 24 equal sticks. All the three colors of our Indian National Flag have meaning. Top saffron color of our flag denotes the strength and courage of our country. The middle white color indicates peace, The lower green color indicates growth and prosperity. There is a navy blue wheel in the center having 24 equal spokes indicating Dharma Chakra of the great king Ashoka.

We celebrate republic day on 26 January as the Indian constitution came into force on this day in 1950. At republic day celebration, a big arrangement takes place by the government of India in New Delhi at Rajpath in front of the India Gate.

Every year, a chief guest (prime minister of another country) is invited to fulfill the purpose of saying “Atithi Devo Bhava” as well as enhance the glory of the occasion. The Indian army does a republic day parade and salutes the National Flag. There is also a big exhibition of Indian culture and tradition taking place by the different Indian states to show the Unity in Diversity in India.

Jai Hind, Jai Bharat

Important Facts

- The Indian Constitution came into effect (officially into a legal circulation) on 26th of January in 1950, at 10:18 am after which India became a Republic country.
- The Indian Constitution came into effect especially on 26th of January because 26th of January 1930 is the anniversary of Purna Swaraj Day.
- The Constitution of India is the longest written Constitution all over the world (which cannot be read in a single day); it has incorporated “448 Articles in 22 Parts, 12 Schedules and 97 Amendments”.

- Indian Constitution is written by Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar (Dr. B.R. Ambedkar). He is known as the father of Indian Constitution.
 - The Constitution of India took around 2 years, 11 months and 18 days to be completed.
 - Two copies of the Indian Constitution were hand-written, one in English and one in Hindi.
 - Both hand-written copies of the Indian Constitution were signed on 24th of January in 1950 by around 308 members of the Assembly.
 - Both of the originally hand-written Indian Constitution copies are kept safely in the helium-filled cases at the Library of Parliament House.
-

Skit on Republic Day

Title: "The Republic Day Ruckus"

Characters:

1. Raj - A patriotic citizen of India
2. Ram - Raj's curious friend
3. Professor Verma - A wise and enthusiastic teacher
4. Constitution Man - A superhero embodying the Indian Constitution

(Scene begins with Raj and Ram sitting in a park, engrossed in a conversation.)

Raj: Ram, do you know why Republic Day is so important for us Indians?

Ram: Well, it's a holiday, and there's a parade, right? But I'm not sure why it's such a big deal.

Raj: It's much more than that, Ram! Republic Day is the day when our Constitution came into effect in 1950. It's the day we became a republic!

Ram: (confused) Republic? Constitution? What's the big deal?

(Raj spots Professor Verma passing by and calls him over.)

Raj: Professor Verma! Can you help me explain to Ram why Republic Day is so important?

Professor Verma: Of course, Raj! Republic Day marks the adoption of our Constitution, which is like the rulebook for our country. It defines our rights, duties, and the principles that guide our nation.

Ram: (intrigued) Okay, but why is having a Constitution such a big deal?

Professor Verma: Imagine playing a game without rules. Chaos, right? The Constitution is like the rulebook for our country. It ensures that everyone is treated fairly, protects our rights, and sets the foundation for a just and democratic society.

(Raj suddenly notices Constitution Man appears)

Constitution Man: (with a big smile) Citizens of India! I am the Constitution Man, here to protect and uphold the principles of our beloved Constitution!

Ram: (surprised) Whoa! Is that... Constitution Man?

Constitution Man: Indeed, Ram! Our Constitution is the backbone of our Republic. It guarantees equality, justice, and freedom to all citizens. Without it, our democracy wouldn't function properly.

Raj: (excited) So, Constitution Man, tell us more about the significance of Republic Day!

Constitution Man: Republic Day is a celebration of our commitment to democracy and the rule of law. It's a day to honor the vision of our forefathers who crafted the Constitution. The parade and festivities showcase the diversity and strength of our nation.

Ram: (grinning) I get it now! Republic Day is like our country's birthday, and the Constitution is the gift that keeps on giving.

Professor Verma: (nodding) Exactly, Ram! It's a day to reflect on the values that make us proud citizens of the Republic of India.

(They all join in the celebration, waving flags and cheering for the parade as Constitution Man strikes Godly Pose.)

Quiz

- When did The Indian Constitution come into effect

“On 26th of January in 1950”

- The Constitution of India has incorporated how many articles -

“448 Articles”

- Who is known as the Father of the Constitution of India?

“Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar (Dr. B.R. Ambedkar)”

Anchor Talk

1st Anchor - Hi Good Morning Our Respected Supervisor, Our Respected Teachers and all my friends present today. I am _____ from Grade 8 M.

2nd Anchor - And I am _____ and We and my friends are going to present today's assembly on Republic Day of India.

1st Anchor - Let's start our day by calling our Respected Supervisor to hoist the UAE flag.

2nd Anchor - Let's Stand in Attention position for UAE National Anthem.

(After Anthem)

1st Anchor - I would like to call _____ for Recitation of the Holy Quran and _____ for the translation.

(After this)

2nd Anchor - As we all know, every school has a vision and mission. I would like to call _____ for Vision and _____ for the Mission.

(After this)

1st Anchor - Every school has a pledge and it helps us to guide our day. So, I would like to call _____ for the school pledge.

(After this)

2nd Anchor - We should start our day with a good thought. So I would like to call _____ for the thought of the day.

(After this)

1st Anchor - It is always good to know what is going around you. We all know that we live in a global world. So I would like to _____ for that Global and Local News.

(After this)

2nd Anchor - Now, Let's know what our topic is.

1st Anchor - Our topic today is Republic Day of India. So I would like to call _____ for a speech on Republic day to let us know this special day in the History of India and why it is celebrated every Year on 26th January.

(After Speech)

2nd Anchor - I hope you all have understood about the importance of the Republic Day of India.

1st Anchor - But I still want to know more about the Republic Day of India. Like some important facts about it.

2nd Anchor - Oh, I think you all also want to know more about this day. So I would like to call _____ for some important facts of Republic Day of India and Constitution of India.

(After Facts)

1st Anchor - It is scientifically proven that learning by watching something is mostly better than learning by hearing.

2nd Anchor - So I would like to call my dear friend _____, _____, _____, _____ to present a skit to help us know the importance of our Constitution for the running of the country.

(After the skit)

1st Anchor - Now I would like to ask some questions on the Republic Day of India and what we all have learned so far.

2nd Anchor - I would like to call _____ to conduct the questionnaire.

(After the questionnaire)

1st Anchor - I hope you all loved our assembly and Now I would like to call our Dear Respected Supervisor to _____.

2nd Anchor - Thank sir. Happy Republic Day and Jai Hind Jai Bharat.

1st Anchor - Assembly Dispersed.

By - Lord CC (Lord Coffee & Cookie)

Anchor Talk

Republic Day

1st Anchor - Hi Good Morning Our Respected Supervisor, Our Respected Teachers and all my friends present today. I am _____ from Grade 8 M.

2nd Anchor - And I am _____ and We and my friends are going to present today's assembly on Republic Day of India.

1st Anchor - Let's start our day by calling our Respected Supervisor to hoist the UAE flag.

2nd Anchor - Let's Stand in Attention position for UAE National Anthem.

(After Anthem)

1st Anchor - I would like to call _____ for Recitation of the Holy Quran and _____ for the translation.

(After this)

2nd Anchor - As we all know, every school has a vision and mission. I would like to call _____ for Vision and _____ for the Mission.

(After this)

1st Anchor - Every school has a pledge and it helps us to guide our day. So, I would like to call _____ for the school pledge.

(After this)

2nd Anchor - We should start our day with a good thought. So I would like to call _____ for the thought of the day.

(After this)

1st Anchor - It is always good to know what is going around you. We all know that we live in a global world. So I would like to _____ for that Global and Local News.

(After this)

2nd Anchor - Now, Let's know what our topic is.

1st Anchor - Our topic today is Republic Day of India. So I would like to call _____ for a speech on Republic day to let us know this special day in the History of India and why it is celebrated every Year on 26th January.

(After Speech)

2nd Anchor - I hope you all have understood about the importance of the Republic Day of India.

1st Anchor - But I still want to know more about the Republic Day of India. Like some important facts about it.

2nd Anchor - Oh, I think you all also want to know more about this day. So I would like to call _____ for some important facts of Republic Day of India and Constitution of India.

(After Facts)

1st Anchor - It is scientifically proven that learning by watching something is mostly better than learning by hearing.

2nd Anchor - So I would like to call my dear friend _____, _____, _____, _____ to present a skit to help us know the importance of our Constitution for the running of the country.

(After the skit)

1st Anchor - Now I would like to ask some questions on the Republic Day of India and what we all have learned so far.

2nd Anchor - I would like to call _____ to conduct the questionnaire.

(After the questionnaire)

1st Anchor - I hope you all loved our assembly and Now I would like to call our Dear Respected Supervisor to _____.

2nd Anchor - Thank sir. Happy Republic Day and Jai Hind Jai Bharat.

1st Anchor - Assembly Dispersed.

Skit

Republic Day

Title: "The Republic Day Skit"

Characters:

- 1. Raj - A patriotic citizen of India (_____)
- 2. Ram - Raj's curious friend (_____)
- 3. Professor Verma - A wise and enthusiastic teacher (_____)
- 4. Constitution Man - A superhero embodying the Indian Constitution
(_____)

(Scene begins with Raj and Ram sitting in a park, engrossed in a conversation.)

Raj: Ram, do you know why Republic Day is so important for us Indians?

Ram: Well, it's a holiday, and there's a parade, right? But I'm not sure why it's such a big deal.

Raj: It's much more than that, Ram! Republic Day is the day when our Constitution came into effect in 1950. It's the day we became a republic!

Ram: (confused) Republic? Constitution? What's the big deal?

(Raj spots Professor Verma passing by and calls him over.)

Raj: Professor Verma! Can you help me explain to Ram why Republic Day is so important?

Professor Verma: Of course, Raj! Republic Day marks the adoption of our Constitution, which is like the rulebook for our country. It defines our rights, duties, and the principles that guide our nation.

Ram: (intrigued) Okay, but why is having a Constitution such a big deal?

Professor Verma: Imagine playing a game without rules. Chaos, right? The Constitution is like the rulebook for our country. It ensures that everyone is treated fairly, protects our rights, and sets the foundation for a just and democratic society.

(Raj suddenly notices Constitution Man appears)

Constitution Man: (with a big smile) Citizens of India! I am the Constitution Man, here to protect and uphold the principles of our beloved Constitution!

Ram: (surprised) Whoa! Is that... Constitution Man?

Constitution Man: Indeed, Ram! Our Constitution is the backbone of our Republic. It guarantees equality, justice, and freedom to all citizens. Without it, our democracy wouldn't function properly.

Raj: (excited) So, Constitution Man, tell us more about the significance of Republic Day!

Constitution Man: Republic Day is a celebration of our commitment to democracy and the rule of law. It's a day to honor the vision of our forefathers who crafted the Constitution. The parade and festivities showcase the diversity and strength of our nation.

Ram: (grinning) I get it now! Republic Day is like our country's birthday, and the Constitution is the gift that keeps on giving.

Professor Verma: (nodding) Exactly, Ram! It's a day to reflect on the values that make us proud citizens of the Republic of India.

(They all join in the celebration, waving flags and cheering for the parade as Constitution Man strikes Godly Pose.)

Speech

Republic Day

I would like to say good morning to My Respected Supervisor, Teachers and my dear colleagues. As we all know that we get together here to celebrate 75th Republic Day of our nation. This is a very auspicious occasion for all of us. Since 1950, we have been celebrating Republic Day every year with lots of joy and happiness. Our Indian anthem which is a symbol of unity and peace in India. Our National Anthem is written by the great poet Rabindranath Tagore.

Our national flag has three colors and a wheel in the center with 24 equal sticks. All the three colors of our Indian National Flag have meaning. Top saffron color of our flag denotes the strength and courage of our country. The middle white color indicates peace, The lower green color indicates growth and prosperity. There is a navy blue wheel in the center having 24 equal spokes indicating Dharma Chakra of the great king Ashoka.

We celebrate republic day on 26 January as the Indian constitution came into force on this day in 1950. At republic day celebration, a big arrangement takes place by the government of India in New Delhi at Rajpath in front of the India Gate.

Every year, a chief guest (prime minister of another country) is invited to fulfill the purpose of saying “Atithi Devo Bhava” as well as enhance the glory of the occasion. The Indian army does a republic day parade and salutes the National Flag. There is also a big exhibition of Indian culture and tradition taking place by the different Indian states to show the Unity in Diversity in India.

Jai Hind, Jai Bharat

Important Facts

Republic Day

- The Indian Constitution came into effect (officially into a legal circulation) on 26th of January in 1950, at 10:18 am after which India became a Republic country.
- The Indian Constitution came into effect especially on 26th of January because 26th of January 1930 is the anniversary of Purna Swaraj Day.
- The Constitution of India is the longest written Constitution all over the world (which cannot be read in a single day); it has incorporated “448 Articles in 22 Parts, 12 Schedules and 97 Amendments”.
- Indian Constitution is written by Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar (Dr. B.R. Ambedkar). He is known as the father of Indian Constitution.
- The Constitution of India took around 2 years, 11 months and 18 days to be completed.
- Two copies of the Indian Constitution were hand-written, one in English and one in Hindi.
- Both hand-written copies of the Indian Constitution were signed on 24th of January in 1950 by around 308 members of the Assembly.
- Both of the originally hand-written Indian Constitution copies are kept safely in the helium-filled cases at the Library of Parliament House.

Quiz

Republic Day

- When did The Indian Constitution come into effect

“On 26th of January in 1950”

- The Constitution of India has incorporated how many articles -

“448 Articles”

- Who is known as the Father of the Constitution of India?

“Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar (Dr. B.R. Ambedkar)”

